CONTENTS OF VOLUME 35

NUMBER 1—JANUARY 1992

Page

1 Shrinkage and psychophysical load ratings in self-paced and force-paced lifting work and during recovery. H. R. Stålhammar, T. P. J. Leskinen, M. T. Rautanen and J. D. G. Troup.

7 Maximization of subjective expected utility or risk control? Experimental tests of risk homeostasis theory. U. Tränkle and C. Gelau.

25 Interference between switched tasks. J.-M. Cellier and H. Eyrolle.

37 Fitts' Law with transmission delay. E. R. Hoffmann

49 The measurement and prediction of isometric lifting strength in symmetrical and asymmetrical postures. D. Sanchez and D. W. Grieve.

65 Lifting low-lying loads in the sagittal plane. G. Noone and J. Mazumdar

93 IEA News.

107 Ergonomics diary.

NUMBER 2—FEBRUARY 1992

123 Experiences in participatory ergonomics: results of a roundtable session during the 11th IEA Congress, Paris, July 1991. P. Vink, E. Lourijsen, E. Wortel and J. Dul.

129 A model for movement time on data-entry keyboards. C. G. Drury and E. R. Hoffmann.

149 The influence of backpack design on physical performance. M. Holewijn and W. A. Lotens.

159 Gain effects on performance using a head-controlled computer input device. M. L. Lin, R. G. Radwin and G. C. Vanderheiden.

177 A simple device for kinematic measurements of human movement. A. Belli, S. Rey, R. Bonnefoy and J. R. Lacour.

187 Regression models for the prediction of dynamic L4/L5 compression forces during lifting. J. R. Potvin, R. W. Norman, M. E. Eckenrath, S. M. McGill and G. W. Bennett.

203 The influence of some handle designs and handle height on the strength of the horizontal pulling action. D. M. Fothergill, D. W. Grieve and S. T. Pheasant.

213 IEA News.

223 Ergonomics diary.

NUMBER 3—MARCH 1992

Page

243 Isoresponse time regions for the evaluation of visual search performance in ergonomic interface models. D. Kee, E. S. Jung and M. K. Chung

253 Can occupational guidelines for work–rest schedules be based on endurance time data? S. E. Mathiassen and J. Winkel

261 Anthropometric data for describing the kinematics of the human hand. B. Buchholz, T. J. Armstrong and S. A. Goldstein

275 External finger forces in submaximal five-finger static pinch prehension. R. G. Radwin, S. Oh, T. R. Jensen and J. G. Webster

289 An investigation of finger pull strengths. S. N. Imrhan and K. Sundararajan

301 Performance of physical tasks in pregnancy. J. A. Nicholls and D. W. Grieve

313 Localized temperatures and water vapour pressures within clothing during alternate exercise/rest in the cold. R. Nielsen and T. L. Endrusick

329 Biomechanical exploration on dynamic modes of lifting. M. Gagnon and G. Smyth

347 Ergonomics diary.

367 Announcement.

NUMBER 4—APRIL 1992

369 The effect of screen format on visual list search. E. S. Bednall

385 Net shoulder joint moment and muscular activity during light weight-handling at different displacements and frequencies. B. Giroux and M. Lamontagne

405 Decrease in back strength in asymmetric trunk postures. P. Vink, H. A. M. Daanen, W. J. Meijst and J. Ligteringen

417 Prediction of the metabolic cost of walking with and without loads. A. Duggan and M. F. Haisman

427 Improving the sitting posture of CAD/CAM workers by increasing VDU monitor working height. M. de Wall, M. P. J. M. van Riel, J. C. F. M. Aghina, A. Burdorf and C. J. Snijders

437 Influence of body segment dynamics on loads at the lumbar spine during lifting. Y. H. Tsuang, O. D. Schipplein, J. H. Trafimow and G. B. J. Andersson

445 Physiological and perceptual responses to load-carrying in female subjects using internal and external frame backpacks. J. Kirk and D. A. Schneider

Page

457 The effects of decision support information on decision-making patterns in systems development. Z.-M. Wang and J.-A. Zhong

467 Ergonomics diary.

489 Book reviews.

493 Announcement.

NUMBERS 5 and 6—MAY–JUNE 1992

497 Editorial. Yoshio Hayashi

499 A method for system reliability analysis with change-over operation. Takeo Yukimachi, Akihiko Nagasaka and Kunihide Sasou

513 Human characteristics at multi-variable control when the operator changes over the plant-lines. Yusaku Okada

525 Human frequency characteristics in manual tracking of three input waves. Eitaro Masuyama

541 An experimental study of pilots' control characteristics for flight of an STOL aircraft in backside of drag curve at approach and landing. Tetsuo Ema.

551 Equation error versus output error methods. Yutaka Tomita, Ad A. H. Damen and Paul M. J. Van Den Hof

565 Modelling and implementation of multi-agent interface system for computer-supported co-operative work. Yasushi Nakauchi, Yoshikuni Itoh, Mitsuru Sato and Yuichiro Anzai

577 An evaluation method of computer usability based on human-to-computer information transmission model. Katsuhiko Ogawa

591 A method of evaluating VDT screen layout by eye movement analysis. Sakae Yamamoto and Yoshinori Kuto

607 Does fatigue exist in a quantitative measurement of eye movements? Susumu Saito

617 Visual capability to receive character information Part I: How many characters can we recognize at a glance? Tadahiko Fukuda

629 Visual capability to receive character information Part II: How long do we need to memorize the random characters briefly presented? Tadahiko Fukuda

637 Basic study on the measuring of fatigue by the minimum audible pressure. Masaharu Takeda

647 The influence of combined visual and tactile information on finger and eye movements during shape tracing. Motoyuki Akamatsu

661 Construction of parametric model of operator and workstation. Kageyu Noro

Page

677 Analysis of sitting comfortability of driver's seat by contact shape. Nobutoshi Yamazaki

693 Preparation of dynamic posture and occurrence of low back pain. Koji Omino and Yoshio Hayashi

708 Announcement.

NUMBERS 7 and 8—AUGUST 1992

709 Editorial. W. Karwowski

710 Preface to Part 1. W. Karwowski

713 Problems and solutions in manual materials handling: the state of the art. M. M. Ayoub

729 Discriminability of load heaviness: implications for the psychophysical approach to manual lifting. W. Karwowski, C. Shumate, J. W. Yates and N. Pongpatana

745 Psychophysical capacity of industrial workers for lifting symmetrical and asymmetrical loads symmetrically and asymmetrically for 8 h work shifts. A. Mital

755 Prediction of the maximum acceptable weight of symmetrical and asymmetrical lift using direct estimation method. F. Chen, F. Aghazadeh and K. S. Lee

769 Margin of safety for the human back: a probable consensus based on published studies. S. Kumar and A. Mital

783 The load on the lumbar spine during asymmetrical bi-manual materials handling. M. Jäger and A. Luttmann

807 Manual materials handling capabilities in non-standard postures. J. L. Smith, M. M. Ayoub and J. W. McDaniel

833 The effects of speed, frequency, and load on measured hand forces for a floor to knuckle lifting task. M. E. Danz and M. M. Ayoub

845 Quantification of back motion during asymmetric lifting. S. A. Ferguson, W. S. Marras and T. R. Waters

861 Static and dynamic lifting strength at different reach distances in symmetrical and asymmetrical planes. S. Kumar and D. Garand

881 Biomechanically and electromyographically assessed load on the spine in self-paced and force-paced lifting work. T. P. J. Leskinen, H. R. Stålhammar, M. T. Rautanen and J. D. G. Troup

889 An electromyographic analysis of seated and standing lifting tasks. J. W. Yates and W. Karwowski

899 An exponential model of isometric muscular fatigue as a function of age and muscle groups. J. M. Deeb, C. G. Drury and D. R. Pendergast

Page

919 Bibliography. M. M. Ayoub

939 Announcements.

NUMBER 9—SEPTEMBER 1992

941 Preface to Part II.

945 Understanding and evaluating manual handling injuries: NIOSH research studies. T. J. Pizatella, V. Putz-Anderson, T. G. Bobick, J. D. McGlothlin and T. R. Waters

955 Limitations in the application of materials handling guidelines. P. W. Buckle, D. A. Stubbs, I. P. M. Randle and A. S. Nicholson

965 Ergonomic workplace assessment in a health care context. L. McAtamney and E. N. Corlett

979 An ergonomic evaluation of nursing assistants' job in a nursing home. A. Garg, B. D. Owen and B. Carlson

997 Ergonomic research study on aircraft luggage handling. A. Rückert, W. Rohmert and G. Pressel

1013 Acceptable workloads for three common mining materials. S. Gallagher and C. A. Hamrick

1033 Anthropometric, muscle strength, and spinal mobility characteristics as predictors in the rating of acceptable loads in parcel sorting. H. R. Stålhammar and V. Louhevaara

1045 Logistical and ergonomic transportation capacity for refuse collection workers: a work physiology field study. A. Luttmann, W. Laurig and M. Jäger

1063 The metabolic cost of backpack and shoulder load carriage. S. J. Legg, T. Ramsey and D. J. Knowles

1069 Evaluation of impact loading in overhead work using a bolt pistol support. H. Wos, J. Lindberg, R. Jakus and S. Norlander

1081 Physical training: a tool for increasing work tolerance limits of employees engaged in manual handling tasks. A. M. Genaidy, W. Karwowksi, L. Guo, J. Hidalgo and G. Garbutt

1103 Effects of job-simulated flexibility and strength-flexibility training protocols on maintenance employees engaged in manual handling operations. L. Guo, A. Genaidy, J. Warm, W. Karwowski and J. Hidalgo

1119 Personnel training for safer material handling. K. H. E. Kroemer

NUMBER 10—OCTOBER 1992

v Editorial preface: Cognitive ergonomics: design and directions

1135 Integrating human factors with the Jackson System Development method: an illustrated overview. K. Y. Lim, J. B. Long and N. Silcock

Page

1163 Cognitive simulation as a tool for cognitive task analysis. E. M. Roth, D. D. Woods and H. E. Pople, Jr.

1199 The complex role of perceptual organization in visual display design theory. P. M. Sanderson, I. Haskell and J. M. Flach

1221 Identifying competences for the design of systems supporting complex decision-making tasks: a managerial planning application. N. Marmaras, S. Lioukas and L. Laios

1243 Trust, control strategies and allocation of function in human–machine systems. J. Lee and N. Moray

1271 Development of microcomputer-based mental acuity tests. J. J. Turnage, R. S. Kennedy, M. G. Smith, D. R. Baltzley and N. E. Lane

1297 Reading from paper versus screens: a critical review of the empirical literature. A. Dillon

NUMBER 11—NOVEMBER 1992

1327 Obituary: Etienne Grandjean

1331 Alteration of circadian rhythm in shift-working ambulance personnel. Monitoring of salivary cortisol rhythm. Y. Motohashi

1341 Electromyographic fatigue in neck/shoulder muscles and endurance in women with repetitive work. G.-Å. Hansson, U. Strömberg, B. Larsson, K. Ohlsson, I. Balogh and U. Moritz

1353 Reducing back stress to nursing personnel: an ergonomic intervention in a nursing home. A. Garg and B. Owen

1377 The effects of armrests and high seat heights on lower-limb joint load and muscular activity during sitting and rising. U. P. Arborelius, P. Wretenberg and F. Lindberg

1393 Anthropometry of South Indian industrial workmen. J. E. Fernandez and K. G. Uppugonduri

1399 Book Reviews.

1405 Our Contemporaries.

1407 IEA News.

1421 Diary 1993.

NUMBER 12—DECEMBER 1992

1423 Bob Wilkinson—an appreciation. Reg Sell

1425 How fast should the night shift rotate? R. T. Wilkinson

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 35

Page

1447 How fast should the night shift rotate? A Rejoinder. Alexander A. I. Wedderburn

1453 Is there a 'best compromise' shift system? Simon Folkard

1465 Reply to Folkard. R. T. Wilkinson

1467 Ranges of dynamic motion of the wrist in healthy young and middle-aged men. Hiroshi Ojima, Shinji Miyake, Masaharu Kumashiro, Hidenori Togami and Katsumi Suzuki

1479 A knowledge-based system for optimizing workplace layouts using a genetic algorithm. D. T. Pham and H. H. Onder

1489 IEA News.

1499 Diary 1993.

1503 Index.
